

The Elizabeth LWML from Zion Lutheran Church – Hampton, Nebraska (Nebraska District - South) recently helped the teens in our congregation start a Friends Into Serving Him® group. This is something our LWML has wanted to do for quite a while, and we are so thankful to finally have this up and going. It was a goal of ours for so long to try to do something to help these young gals have a group to call their own, where they can come together to study God’s Word, pray together, and have fun serving our mighty God!

Our first meeting was held on September 23, 2009, where we served the girls pizza, shared a little about the LWML, had a devotional time and prayers. We then sorted and packed layettes that were given to the Orphan Grain Train. One thing I felt was awesome about our time working on the layettes was when we were folding the diapers, none of the gals ever heard of using cloth diapers. This then led to a “teaching moment” where we shared how we used to diaper babies!

The girls are awesome and want to continue to meet as a group. We have plans to continue to meet with them. Our next service plans are to make quiet bags for the young children of our congregation. Our hope though is to have one or two of the older teens take over and lead this group, with our LWML working as mentors to them.
