TEENS IN ACTION AS OBSERVED by President Jan

Throughout my term as president one of the exciting things I had the opportunity to witness was the increased involvement by teens through Friends Into Serving Him®. Teens have been a part of the LWML for many years, serving as pages at district and national conventions. Within the last six years LWML has made a concerted effort to provide resources for groups of teens and to encourage the teen leaders.

In March 2010 I attended a training event in Iowa East — their Assembly of Leaders. The teens pictured here were in attendance, sporting their "I ♥ Friends Into Serving HIM®" T-shirts, along with their beautiful smiles. Throughout the day they participated in the event, helping wherever needed and serving with gladness.

District conventions 2010 saw many teens involved, again assisting where needed, but also involved in the programming and attending the conventions. Several districts have committed to having a teen program at their conventions. We are only beginning to see what is possible.

The LWML is your grandmother's organization; the LWML is your mother's organization; the LWML is your organization, too. You are the Face of LWML.
